

A strength-based framework to support youth mental health

Identifying strengths and abilities

Nurturing potential, growth, and goals

Strengthening relationships and social connections

Promoting explicit SEL skill development

Instilling a supportive environment

Reinforcing collaborative problem-solving

Embracing a holistic healing-centered approach

INSER E

A strength-based framework to support youth mental health

NSPIRE

Identifying strengths and abilities

Strength-based Interviews
SBC Protocols

Strength-based Assessment

CliftonStrengths

VIA Character Strengths

SPOT strengths

Nurturing potential, growth, and goals

Set clear expectations and goals

Provide timely and constructive feedback

Differentiate instruction

Celebrate progress and milestones

Strengthening relationships and social connections

Welcoming activities

What's Poppin

SAFE Circles

Check-ins

Active Listening and Empathy

Positive Reinforcement and Encouragement

INSPIRE

Promoting explicit SEL skill development

Integrate explicit skill development

6 Minute SEL

Provide opportunities for practicing SEL skills for students

Provide professional development for staff (like this) in social-emotional development

Data and assessment practices

XSEL Labs

INSPE

Instilling a supportive environment

Establishing Classroom Routines and Rituals

Offer safe spaces for young people

SAFE Passage

School safety and climate

Train teachers, staff, and caregivers

INSER E

Reinforcing collaborative problem-solving

Use solution-focused strategies

Community partners as collaborators

Teach conflict-resolution skills

SELTV Videos

Develop problem solving teams

ALT

ELT

Redesign Teams

@bestrengthbased

Embracing a holistic healing-centered approach

Establish norms and values

Use restorative conversations

It's about balance!

Acknowledge both strengths and weaknesses